

PRESS RELEASE

2010 ROEHAMPTON GOLD CUP

The 84th Ladies' Open Gold Challenge Cup, scheduled for April 17th at Roehampton Club in London, will not be taking place this year. It is with much regret that the Organising Committee has had to take this decision due to major development works at the Club which began last September and unfortunately are likely to continue well into April. This work includes the implementing of a flood mitigation programme. In addition, there is to be extensive bunker renovation. The Organising Committee would like to present the course in the best possible condition. They ask for your understanding and invite you to support the Gold Cup next year.

The event will be back on SATURDAY APRIL 16TH, 2011
